

I, _____ the parent/guardian of _____, a student in the _____ grade, have read and completely understood all rules and regulations pertaining to the matters hereinafter stated, hereby agree and undertake to:

- Ensure that the student shall abide by the rules, code of conduct and regulations of IIS including those related to attendance, academic honesty and uniform (available on website: www.iis.edu.jo), incorporated herein by reference, as amended by IIS from time to time.
- Ensure that the student wears the official school uniform.
- Accept and abide by all decisions of the School's Administration.
- Pay all requested school fees and deposits promptly noting that any/all fees are non-refundable.
- Allow IIS to conduct educational assessments/tests as deemed necessary by the school including, but not limited to psychological and educational tests/assessments (at parent expense) and with parent agreement.
- Acknowledge that IIS has final authority concerning student admissions, re-admission, grade and class placement, retention, placement in special programs and curriculum.
- Permit the student to participate in all curricula and extra curricula activities, including, but not confined to: practical work such as science experiments, PE and sports activities, field trips and educational visits in/outside of the School.
- Not hold IIS liable beyond responsible negligence, for accidents caused during student's participation in activities and/ or for accidents, which are a result of actions, my child/ren take/s unilaterally without permission.
- Allow IIS to use the student's photo and/or image in its school publications, social media, multi-media campaigns and website.
- Not to defame or lower, within the community, by action or word the reputations of IIS, its Founders and/ or representatives.

I have discussed the contents of this Letter of Undertaking and the rules and regulations of IIS with the student and stressed the need to keep to these. I understand that IIS can provide a valuable learning experience for the student and that IIS makes every effort to provide a safe and secure environment in which to learn; however, the student is responsible for her/ his behaviour at all times and I understand and agree that should the student break IIS rules and regulations, including that which is outlined in this Letter of Undertaking, that they will face appropriate consequences according to the laws of the Ministry of Education and the internal laws of the school.
